Declaration of Product Compliance for United States

To Whom It May Concern:

We acknowledge receipt of your request for information with respect to our obligations as a supplier of products regulated in the United States, and certify compliance to the requirements of the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act, California Proposition 65, and the reporting requirements for children's products in various states.

Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act (CPSIA)

We certify, to the best of our knowledge, that in-scope products and materials produced by Columbia Sportswear Company under the brand names Columbia, Mountain Hardwear, Sorel, and prAna comply with the following requirements under the CPSIA:

Flammability of Apparel and Accessories – 16 CFR 1610 and 16 CFR 1611

Lead in Children's Products – CPSIA Section 101, 16 CFR 303

California Proposition 65

We certify that, to the best of our knowledge, the products manufactured by Columbia Sportswear Company under the brand names Columbia, Mountain Hardwear, Sorel, and prAna comply with California Proposition 65.

We currently do not have any products that require a Proposition 65 warning label under the updated Article 6 requirements. We understand our obligation to notify accounts if products require a Proposition 65 warning label and will do so in the future if that situation occurs.

State Chemical Reporting Laws

Several US states require reporting when certain chemicals are found in children's products. Currently the states that require reporting are Washington, Maine, Vermont, and Oregon.

We certify that, to the best of our knowledge, the children's products manufactured by Columbia Sportswear Company under the brand names Columbia, Mountain Hardwear and Sorel comply with reporting requirements for children's products in all states with reporting requirements. At this time, prAna does not make children's products.

If you are interested in additional information about our restricted substances policy, please reference the CSC Restricted Substances List in the Corporate Responsibility section of www.columbiasportswearcompany.com.

Best Regards,
